

we are barnsley

wearebarnsley.com is the fresh new web site the whole of the town has been waiting for.

It's all the best bits for Facebook, Youtube, MySpace and Twitter all rolled into one – just for Barnsley.

But there's so much more to wearebarnsley.com than just social networking....

When a big story breaks, we'll be live at the scene, streaming video footage direct into people's homes.

We'll be covering all the major events that take place across the borough; we'll be brimming with ideas about places to go; activities to try; films to see and shows to watch; and we'll be highlighting all the talent hidden away across Barnsley.

But we'll also be the place to discover great deals and discounts offers; get two-for-one cinema tickets; win fantastic prizes; track down local shops and businesses and – thanks to our dedicated rooftop weather station – find out exactly what the weather holds.
